Prayer of Confession

Mr. Wright

God, be merciful to us. We are sinners. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. And we have strayed from your ways like lost sheep. For these things we ask for your forgiveness and we also ask for your strength. Create in us clean hearts, and put a new and right spirit within us. Grant that we may hereafter live a godly and righteous life to the glory of your name. Amen.

All offer prayers of confession in silence.

Words of Assurance

Mr. Wright

Leader: The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

All: May the almighty and merciful Lord grant us remission of all our sins,
true repentance, amendment of life,
and the grace and consolation of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Pastoral Prayer and The Lord’s Prayer

Rev. Buckman

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

“O Sacred Head, Now Wounded”

PASSION CHORALE

The congregation will leave the Sanctuary following the closing hymn and process in silence to the front steps of the church for the draping of the cross and the benediction.

†Draping of the Cross

†Benediction

Rev. Buckman

Ash Wednesday emphasizes a dual encounter: we confront our own mortality and confess our sin before God within the community of faith. The use of ashes as a sign of mortality and repentance has a long history in Jewish and Christian worship, and the Imposition of Ashes can be a powerful nonverbal and experiential way of participating in the call to repentance and reconciliation.

Children and Worship

A nursery is provided for children 4 and under. You can find our nursery by going through the door behind the organ console and down one flight of stairs.
